PINOT NOIR

FINNIGAN HILL VINEYARD | OREGON

SITE

Finnigan Hill Vineyard is a high elevation vineyard at 700 feet in the Chehalem Mountains, located within the northern Willamette Valley region of Oregon.

NOTES

Classic notes of ripe red and blue fruit are complemented by hallmark characteristics of savoury undergrowth, forest floor, sage, and wild chanterelles. A privilege for Rust winemaker Ryan de Witte to have the opportunity to interpret fruit from the landmark region for Pinot Noir in North America.
