13 months in neutral american & hungarian oak

the venerable ferreira vineyard on the black sage bench, home to some of the region's most rustic and dramatic cellars

a side of adobe lamb, an eminent pairing for this fine grape in the southern hemisphere from whence it came a fine vine leaf, evoking hallmark crunchy greenery that carménère is often associated with green peppercorns to drive home the distinct flavours of the wine and create a little friction on the taste buds

a modest piece of architecture from our very own cellars, so the wine always knows where home is
